Sand Gnats ticket sales help raise money for Habitat for Humanity

(Savannah, GA) - On Sunday, August 16th, the Coastal Empire Habitat for Humanity has partnered with the 1st Half Champions of the SALLY League, Savannah Sand Gnats for a Family Fun Day. Over half of the ticket cost for a Sand Gnat game will go to the Coastal Empire Habitat for Humanity. The designated tickets cost $8.00 of which $4.50 will be donated to the local Habitat for Humanity affiliate located in Savannah.

In addition to the generous ticket revenue sharing, it is also 'Kids Eat Free' day and children under 12 will receive vouchers at the gate for a free hot dog, drink and chips. Sunday is also 'Bark in the Park' day so it's an event that the entire family can enjoy while bring their dogs to enjoy in the festivities.

"It is the embodiment of team work when the Sand Gnats give back so that we can continue our work of affordable home ownership for families of character" said Executive Director Michael Weathers. "Housing is the cornerstone to revitalizing our Savannah neighborhoods so our families have safe foundations on which to build their lives".

Tickets can be purchased at the Habitat Main office during the week or by contacting a Board Member or our office by calling 912-353-8122. If you would like group tickets, please contact us as soon as possible.
