Coastal Empire Habitat for Humanity selects new Executive Committee Members

(SAVANNAH, Georgia)- Two new officers and two existing officers were elected by the Board of Directors for the Coastal Empire Habitat for Humanity, the area's premier developer of affordable housing. The officers were installed at a recent meeting and will hold their positions for two year terms, expiring June 30, 2017.

President Elect, Ted Jones, is employed with Georgia Power and recently was the Board of Directors' Vice President. He has been active with Habitat on the Finance Committee as well as the Construction Committee.

Vice-President Elect, Rachel Young-Fields, is a partner at Hunter Maclean and has been active as the Chair for the Resource Development Committee.

Renewing their roles on the Board were Marc Havis of Gulfstream as Treasurer and Ouida Fox of Hunter MacLean as Secretary.

We are excited to have individuals such as these people and all our Board members who volunteer their time & expertise to assist the mission & ministry in the Coastal Empire", stated Michael Weathers, Executive Director. "Their talents & skills, and understanding of the mission & ministry of Habitat will serve our donors, partner families and affiliate as we expand into the future."

About Coastal Empire Habitat for Humanity:

The Coastal Empire Habitat for humanity, located in Savannah, Georgia, and an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, is a nonprofit Christian organization dedicated to eliminating poverty housing. Habitat for Humanity brings together people with resources and people in need to build simple, decent, affordable houses. The houses are sold to those in need at no profit, through no-interest loans. Coastal Empire Habitat for Humanity was founded in 1983 and has opened the door to home ownership to over 130 families throughout Savannah. Anyone interested in volunteering or contributing to Habitat Savannah's mission is encouraged to call Habitat for Humanity at 912.353.8122 or visit us at www.habitatsavannah.org; www.facebook.com/HabitatSavannah; or www.twitter.com/HabitatSavannah
